

Replacing a Tape Drive

First locate the drive....:

After locating the drive to be replaced remove the power connection and the Scsi cable, remove four screws {two on each side] and slide the drive out,

On the back of the drive are plastic jumpers,,the ID and termination is important

If the drive is at the end of the 50 pin scsi cable the termination jumper must be applied

All drive should be ID 2 [see example]

