

TTYSNOOPS INSTALLATION AND OPERATION

INSTALL

1. transfer a copy of ttysnoop.tar.gz to the /home/abcs directory
2. cd to root (cd /)
3. extract the files (tar zxvf /home/abcs/ttysnoop.tar.gz)

OPERATION

1. user than needs assistance will issue the ttysnoops command from a prompt $ttysnoops
2. they will be asked for a login and password, they may use their regular username and password
3. the person providing assistance will need to location which tty the user is logged into. the use can issue the tty command at the prompt or they can use ps to locate the login:

```
#ps -ef | grep -e "marysue"
```

4. once the tty has been identified the ttysnoop command can be given with the tty number as an argument

```
#ttysnoop ttyp5
```

5. a message will indicate that the connection has been made
6. to end the session press the ctrl and the - key at the same time